Hakata Ramen + Bar

Named after a neighbourhood in the Japanese city of Fukuoka, Hakata Ramen + Bar is the izakaya-style eatery bringing the best of informal Asian dining to southeast London. The upper level serves steaming bowls of ramen, whereas the basement bar, Izakaya, serves Japanese pub-grub in delicious style; dishes including prawn gyoza, soy garlic tebasaki and pork ribs. The extensive cocktail list includes a Tokyo negroni and a yuzu mojito as well as an impressive array of saké to accompany your meal.
